

BREED REPORT

Identified Breed: Golden Retriever

Golden Retriever

The Golden Retriever is a large, friendly dog breed known for their intelligence and gentle temperament. They are excellent family pets and are highly trainable.

ORIGIN:

Scotland, 19th century

SIZE:

20-24 inches, 55-75 lbs

TEMPERAMENT:

Friendly, tolerant, devoted,
excellent with families

HEALTH NOTES:

Prone to hip dysplasia, heart disease, and cancer; needs regular exercise

KEY TRAITS:

- Intelligent, Friendly, Devoted, Outgoing

FUN FACT:

Golden Retrievers were originally bred in Scotland to retrieve game birds during hunting.